Church Notices

1) BBC Radio Jersey's Cathy Le Feuvre will be speaking at next Sunday's New Song 6.00pm at SHMC with Vini Jones and Cathy leading the worship. All welcome.

2) On February 10th we have the joy of baptising Manaka Haley, daughter of Gloria and Rhoderick. This a moment when we celebrate new life, God's grace and welcome her into the family of the church.

3) As parking is so limited, if you have to park at church during the week please make sure to put your name visibly on a note on the dashboard and leave your car keys in the office. On a Sunday please indicate your name visibly.

4) A Date for your diary: Beetle  Drive for the Christian Aid Island to Island appeal February 16th. An evening of fun suitable for all ages!

5) Methodist Women's Lunch is on Monday 11th February. The speaker will be Family Nursing and Home Care. See Eve to book your place.

6) Leprosy Mission Phials. Should your phial become full just let me know and I will provide you with a new one. Maybe there are others in the congregation who would also like to help by collecting £1 coins? If so just contact me and I will explain the system to you. With thanks, Roy Picot

Please pray for all those working at home and those who volunteer, the congregation of St Martin, Ebenezer and Eden Methodist churches and the Rev Nico Hilmy-Jones.

Six weeks with St Paul in Sunny Corinth!

Today we continue our mini-series on St Paul's first letter to the church in Corinth by exploring his description of the church as a body with many parts (12:12-26). Next Sunday Wilma will speak on his famous poem about love (ch 13) and the following three weeks we will consider the Gifts of the Spirit (ch14), Feb 17th Christ's resurrection (ch 15) and finally on Feb 24th his parting words and advice to his friends in Corinth (ch 16).

To know more about St Paul go to thebibleproject.com This is a wonderful resource which mixes good scholarship, humour and amazing graphics. And it is free of charge!
