On the journey to Emmaus, with our hearts cold as stone,
the one who would save us had left us alone.
Then a stranger walks with us – and, to our surprise,
he opens our stories and he opens our eyes.

And our hearts burned within us as we talked on the way, how all that was promised was ours on that day.
So we begged him, “Stay with us, and grant us your word” –
we welcomed the stranger, and we welcomed the Lord.

And that evening at table, as he blessed and broke bread;
we knew it was Jesus arisen from the dead.
Though he vanished before us, we knew he was near – the life in our dying, and the hope in our fear.

Make your life a living story, and your song a living flame of the Spirit God within you, who has called you each by name, called you out from sin and sadness, out of fear and hate and shame:
praise the God of joy and gladness, stand and shout the faith you claim.
